MEET THE DIRECTOR

Michelle Kossler, Director
Learn 2 Play

"I believe that by setting high expectations for your players and providing an atmosphere at practices and games that is both fun and competitive, players will reach their full potential. I hope to inspire each player to do their best and at the same time develop their passion for the game."

With over 20 years of youth soccer coaching experience, Michelle brings a wealth of knowledge and kid-friendly enthusiasm to Learn2Play. She holds a USSF National "C" license, a OYSAN youth training certificate, a Referee grade 8 certification, and is an Olympic Development Program goalkeeper coach. Michelle is also the Director of the girls' premier team for Hudson United (HSA's travel program), and Head Coach of several Hudson United travel teams. She has played soccer her whole life at all levels including collegiate play, ODP team, and international tournaments.

Learn 2 Play

Have fun and learn soccer

Learn 2 Play

Hudson Soccer Association (HSA) introduces excellent soccer instruction to the youth of Hudson in its new program Learn 2 Play.

- Season is divided into four sessions, following HSA’s Rec League calendar.
- Weekly sessions on Saturdays
- Cost is $70 per player per session.
- Players divided into small groups based on age and skill.
- Each session, players receive professionally-developed, weekly coaching instruction in the form of fun, soccer-related games and game play.
- Each session designed to involve all players, all the time; with maximum ball contact throughout.
- All sessions guided by trained coaching staff.
- All instruction in a fun setting based on OYSAN (Ohio Youth Soccer Association) coaching standards.
- All players will receive end-of-session feedback and assistance with the next steps in their development.
- Players provide shin-guards, socks, shoes and water.
- Learn2Play provides t-shirt.
